CR 2002-009759

Defense counsel Hall updates the Court regarding the progress of the case, specifically, problems that arose with the mitigation specialist and the investigator, resulting in a delay. Counsel requests another extension.

State's counsel responds. The victims having expressed a concern regarding the length of time this matter has taken, the State objects to an extension.

The Court will set a hearing in early April. Counsel will be contacted by this division for the scheduling of said date. If an extension of time is still needed, defense may file the appropriate motion. If the victims want to object or be heard, they will have that opportunity to do so at that time.

9:17 a.m. Matter concludes.
